

REMARKS:

The PTOL-85 Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due dated March 8, 2010 allowed each of claims 1-4 and 9-11, with an Examiner's amendment to claims 1, 2, 3, 4, and 10. The Applicants thank the Examiner for the allowance.

On June 15, 2010 the Applicant's Representative contacted the Examiner regarding amendments agreed to, by the Examiner, in the telephone interview with Mr. Gerald Stanton on June 4, 2010, as noted on page 2 of the PTOL-37 Notice of Allowability included with the Notice of Allowance. Particularly, Applicant's Representative identified amendments, agreed to, but not included in the Examiner's amendment. The Examiner indicated that these amendments were inadvertently omitted from the Examiner's amendments. The Examiner requested that the Applicant's Representative submit an Amendment under Rule 312 [37 CFR 1.312 and MPEP 714.16 and 714.16(c)] to correct this matter.

The Applicant's Representative notes that the above amendments include the Examiner's amendments to claims 1, 2, 3, 4, and 10, as described on pages 2 to 3 of the PTOL-37. In addition, the above amendments include amendments to claims 1 and 9 as per the telephone interview on June 4, 2010 but inadvertently omitted from the Examiner's amendment. More specifically:

Claim 1 at line 1 has been further amended to include the word "readable" after the word "computer" and before the word "program"

Claim 9 beginning at line 5 has been amended to recite in part:

"an image quality correction process that is different than the first interpolation process"

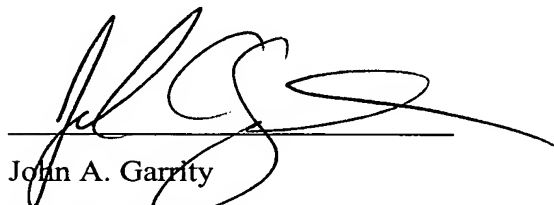

There are no other amendments provided in addition to the Examiner's amendment.

S.N.: 10/519,857
Art Unit: 2624

Entry of this Amendment will require no additional search or examination. Because this amendment does not change the scope of any claim but instead addresses inadvertent errors, MPEP 714.16 and 714.16(e) Part II grants the Examiner authority to enter this amendment at the Examiner's own discretion, even without submission to a supervisory patent examiner. The undersigned representative welcomes the opportunity to resolve any matters that may remain, formal or otherwise, via teleconference at the Examiner's discretion.

The issue fee will be paid at a later date under separate cover.

Respectfully submitted:

John A. Garrity
